Dear Lalit and RBS Reputation Management Team Members,

I am writing to let you know how thrilled I am with the excellent results your company provided me. I searched the internet looking for “reputation defenders” help with my unfortunate arrest record that was published on the internet. I knew for sure my reputation would be ruined and I could potentially lose my current job, not to mention not being able to find another job in the future. I contacted RBS Reputation Management and was immediately contacted by Lalit Sharma.

We exchanged several e-mails and I was comfortable he knew exactly what needed to be done. Within a few weeks, my arrest record “disappeared” from all search engines when searching on my first and last name. I am thrilled with the results!

I would highly recommend RBS Reputation Management to anyone wanting to move negative search results down many pages or remove them all together. Lalit was a man of his word and guaranteed results. I could not be happier. RBS produced positive results at a fair price!

Sincerely,

Eileen S.
